

LABOR MARKET INFORMATION

“Cheat Sheet”

All the materials in your packets (or links to them) can also be found on the web page, “For Employment Counselors”:

http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/pubs/pubs_train_links.asp

Census Data

<http://factfinder.census.gov/servlet/BasicFactsServlet>

Utah Wage Trends, Wage Flyers, and other (web-only) wage information:

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/pubs/Wnl/Owi/wages.asp>

This magazine style publication contains wage information for selected occupations in Utah. It also provides articles pertinent to wages in Utah. An abbreviated statewide table is published in the document, with internet links to area specific wage data for: Salt Lake-Ogden, Provo-Orem, Box Elder-Cache, Iron-Washington, and other non-metro areas of the state. Also online is a definition of the selected occupations.

Utah Job Outlook in Brief

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/occi.asp> (under Publications)

This handy, 8-page booklet contains statewide wage data. It lists occupations characterized by degrees of training, such as short-term, moderate-term, long-term, work experience, etc. The occupations listed in it are the most prevalent jobs in Utah.

Sub-state Job Outlooks in Brief

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/occi.asp> (under Publications)

Like the Utah Job Outlook in Brief, these booklets contain wage information for metro and non-metro Utah:

Metro – Salt Lake, Utah, Davis, Weber

Non-metro – Box Elder, Cache, Rich, Morgan, Tooele, Summit, Wasatch, Daggett, Duchesne, Uintah, Juab, Millard, Sanpete, Sevier, Piute, Wayne, Beaver, Garfield, Iron, Kane, Washington, Carbon, Emery, Grand, San Juan.

They also list occupations characterized by degrees of training, such as short-term, moderate-term, long-term, work experience, etc.

Occupational Outlook Handbook

<http://www.bls.gov/oco/>

This is a federal government publication that defines occupations, gives a nation-wide employment outlook, training requirements, nature of work, etc., for many occupations nationwide. If an occupation is found that is in demand in Utah, this publication can provide supplemental information as to the characteristics of that occupation.

Adult Career Guide

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/occi.asp> (under Publications)

This booklet is directed primarily toward job seekers who are in the process of choosing a career. It includes information about planning a career, planning for training or education, lists of training and education programs, apprenticeships, financing education and training, and occupations in demand. It also contains a career chart providing a description of the job duties, the outlook, the average wage, and training required for each occupation.

Licensed Occupations in Utah

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/occi.asp> (under Publications)

This web-only publication is a list of all occupations in Utah that require a State license, with links to detailed information for each including the licensing agency, corresponding fees, any training requirements, as well as links to professional organizations when applicable.

FirmFind

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/occi.asp> (under Related Links and Other Informtaion)

An electronic listing of Utah's employers. Can be searched by an company, area, occupation, and industry, for employers that hire people within this occupation.

Job Seeker's Guide to Utah

<http://jobs.utah.gov/wi/occi.asp> (under Publications)

Made for the job seeker who is either a newcomer to Utah or a newcomer to the job market. It can aid in understanding Utah, its labor market, education and training services.